

How are our feet?

“And how can they preach unless they are sent?
As it is written ‘How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!’” Romans 10:15

Kerry & Denise Godwin Missionaries at International Media Ministries

“I’m going to come and then gather everyone—all nations, all languages. They’ll come and see my glory. I’ll set up a station at the center. I’ll send the survivors of judgment all over the world: Spain and Africa, Turkey and Greece, and the far-off islands that have never heard of me, who know nothing of what I’ve done nor who I am. I’ll send them out as missionaries to preach my glory among the nations. They’ll return with all your long-lost brothers and sisters from all over the world. They’ll bring them back and offer them in living worship to God.” Isaiah 66 (The Message)

Before we left the US for IMM and Spain, the most common question we were asked was “Are you excited?”

I’m averaging above 500 points in on-line stress tests. With a score of 300 or more comes an “80% chance of stress-related illness.” So yes, I’m excited.

Missions is an exciting world and we as believers can be stretched beyond our ability to cope. We need God’s help! Welcome to the battle for souls.

Here are some encouraging words from the frontlines of media missions:

•Farid, a Jordanian, said that he is “now Christian, no more Muslim.”

•Amar, from Algeria, said that “TV is the only way I have to hear the words of the Holy Bible.”

•Ahmed, a Moroccan, said that after hearing the Good News, he understood that it was “a clear invitation to accept the Lord as his Savior too.”

•Abdallah, a Saudi, said he is Christian and happy about it though he is alone. He says many thanks for such a good program.

•Souhila in Algeria called and talked about the difficulties she now faces with her family because of the Gospel.
