

Dear Friends—Sometimes we need Jesus with skin on in the form of a counselor. (Isaiah 9)
NDD recognizes the following individuals as specialists in their unique counseling fields.

Amy E. Cain - Amy is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor in the state of Kansas. She is co-owner of CrossPointe Counseling Center in Gardner. She has extensive experience in the area of depression, anxiety, loss/grief, adoption, and relationship issues. Amy is passionate about watching clients transform their lives and experience fulfilling relationships. She also serves as an Adjunct Professor at MidAmerica Nazarene University in the Masters of Counseling program where she teaches Intro to Theories, Helping Skills, and Family Therapy. Amy is in-network with many insurance companies.

Bob Cave - Pastor Bob Cave is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. Bob is also a Certified Family Life Educator through the National Council of Family Relations. In addition, he is a certified trainer for Life Innovations, training pastors and mental health professionals to implement the PREPARE and ENRICH inventory in their professional setting with engaged and married couples.

Bob's counseling philosophy is centered around a person's relationship with Christ and how that influences all other life relationships. When we do the right thing for the right reason we engage the Spirit on our behalf for health and wholeness.

Ryan Darrow - Pastor Ryan is the lead pastor at Overland Park, First Assembly. His primary competencies or scope of practice include: Marriage and family therapy (certified in the Taylor-Johnson Temperament Analysis, Psychological Audit of Interpersonal Relationships, and many others); Substance Abuse; Same sex attraction; Vocational Assessments (certified in the Meyers-Briggs Type Indicator); Crisis Intervention; Parent education; Sexual abuse and trauma; Post-traumatic stress; Obsessive compulsive disorder; Mood Disorders and Personality Disorders.

Marcia Mehlhaff - Marcia lives in Stockton, KS. Marcia is currently a licensed school psychologist in two school districts. Marcia leads group counseling sessions each week at Teen Challenge. Marcia received her counseling certificate through Emerge Ministries.

Marcia's life verse is Romans 12:2, which encapsulates her philosophy for counseling. "Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will know what God wants you to do and you will know how good and pleasing and perfect his will really is."

Ryan Webster - Pastor Ryan has served in fulltime ministry for 13 years in Kansas. He obtained a B.S. from Evangel University and M.S. from Southwest Oklahoma State University, both in Clinical (Applied) Psychology, Ryan's approach in counseling is simply to speak the truth in love; by using practical life applications with the Word of God and combining it with a cognitive behavioral approach to treatment. His focus is marriage counseling and man to man counseling. He also has experience and training in grief/crisis counseling.

If you sense a desire or leading to connect with a godly counselor, contact any of these specialists. These counselors have kindly offered a complimentary first-session for you and will gladly work within your financial abilities for further sessions if needed. If our Network Development office can assist you in any other way please call – 316-945-8999.
